Important Notice

Given the delays due to the COVID 19 pandemic and the high volume of renewal applications currently being received, the Division will authorize licensees to print a copy of the NMLS Consumer Access page to post in place of a Division license. Expected turnaround time for a new license is 30 - 45 days. Please see the following example of an authorized posting.

You may access the NMLS Consumer Access page here:

Regulatory Actions While some state and federal agencies may add actions taken in previous years against a licensee, the majority are adding only new actions from 2012 or later. To view complete information regarding regulatory actions posted by the agency, click any regulator link.

No regulatory actions have been posted in NMLS.

Self-reported Disciplinary Actions For federal registration purposes, individuals are required by Federal law to disclose information regarding certain matters, including certain criminal convictions, such as those involving dishonesty, certain regulatory actions, and certain civil judicial or litigation actions related to financial services. This information is self-reported by the individual and has not necessarily been verified by any regulatory agency. If no information is displayed below, the individual has not disclosed any such information.

No disciplinary actions have been posted in NMLS.

Information made available through NMLS Consumer Access<sup>SM</sup> is derived from NMLS (Nationwide Multistate Licensing System / Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry), the financial services industry's online registration and licensing database. NMLS was created by the Conference of State Bank Supervisors \(CSBS\) and the American Association of Residential Mortgage Regulators \(AARMR\) and is owned and operated by the State Regulatory Registry LLC \(SRR\), a wholly owned subsidiary of CSBS.
